"Abbey Road Band -- A Tribute to the Beatles"
Saturday, January 16, 2016 -- 7 PM

The Abbey Road Band is made up of four superlative musicians, who share the passion of those Beatles fans who witnessed that first wave of "Beatlemania" in the early sixties. The band understands the audiences who were swept up in the wave of Beatles music from the first chord on the "Ed Sullivan Show" to the last song on the album "Let it Be" and beyond. The Abbey Road Band doesn't wear Beatle wigs or period costumes, they have something far better. They were there. They lived the Beatles explosion and have dedicated their musical lives to recapture that perfect music and that perfect moment.

"British Invasion"
Saturday, February 06, 2016 -- 7 PM

We all know the Beatles changed the game when it comes to rock and roll -- but let's not forget all the other great bands who swept onto our shores from across the pond! There was a shift in the musical culture in the mid-1960's when mop-topped rockers from across the Atlantic began to rule the airwaves. Saluting hit-makers such as Herman's Hermits, The Animals, The Rolling Stones, the Dave Clark Five and many more -- this is one invasion you won't want to resist!

My Funny Valentine

"My Funny Valentine"

Saturday, February 13, 2016 -- 7 PM

Richard Rodgers is recognized as one of the greatest composers of the 20th century, having written more than 900 songs and 40 musicals during his career. We'll pay tribute to this musical master with an evening of song that includes selections from a small sample of his Broadway hits, including Oklahoma, The Sound of Music, and South Pacific. And no salute to Rodgers would be complete without soul-stirring favorites like "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Blue Moon," "Do You Hear a Waltz," and of course, "My Funny Valentine."
